Rhetoric used in the trial
People of color never get recourse through our legal system for police brutality cases, especially Black folks
Community: criminal justice, police brutality, supporting BLM
Deeana Jang – head of LEP/ Federal Coordination and Compliance
Deeana.jang@usdoj.gov - investigation on language access piece? Send with original letter

DOJ willing to provide language access plan in Madison, AL – will not punish the officer, will Ask Asha Kiran to get DOJ to help Madison police department to develop language access plan. DOJ wants to be invited in.

Office of Justice Programs
Filing an official complaint – can launch an investigation

Overall policy and plan – not focused on this single incident

Referred to DOJ for litigation
Funding agency can remove funding

Can press civil charges in civil court
Only the government can appeal on criminal end
What about the case at the state level for misdemeanor?
DOJ investigation (Federal Coordination and Compliance) or can help with overall language access policy and plan